

BRAND GUIDELINES

Millennium Engineers
& Contractors Limited

RCC Construction / Civil Engineering / Infrastructure

LOGO

An identity built from structural geometry

INTERLOCKING PLANES

The 3D Isometric block language suggests structural modules, built form and engineered connection.

RED CORE

The red planes create a visual focal point and can act as the brand's action / safety accent.

WORDMARK

Use the height of the "M" wordmark as the practical spacing reference.

Color Palette

The MECPL color palette is derived directly from the primary logo, utilizing high-contrast industrial colors. HEX/RGB values are recommended brand-system values based on visual analysis of the mark.

MECPL RED

HEX: #EC3338
RGB: (236, 51, 56)
CMYK: C: 0%, M: 78%, Y: 76%, K: 7%

Used for accents, highlighting structural elements, and drawing attention.

STEEL GREY

HEX: #949599
RGB: (148, 149, 153)
CMYK: C: 3%, M: 3%, Y: 0%, K: 40%

Primary brand color representing concrete, steel, and solid foundations.

WHITE

HEX: #FFFFFF
RGB: (255, 255, 255)
CMYK: C: 0%, M: 0%, Y: 0%, K: 0%

Pure white acts as a neutral canvas that forces the viewer's eye toward your brand's key visual assets.

CHARCOAL

HEX: #232529
RGB: (35, 37, 41)
CMYK: C: 15%, M: 10%, Y: 0%, K: 84%

Primary text color. Provides higher legibility and a more premium feel than pure black.

Typography System

The rendered website did not expose a verifiable font family in the accessible text layer; this guide therefore specifies a recommended system.

Consistency rules — do / don't

DO

- Use the master logo artwork
- Keep red as an accent, not a flood
- Use real project imagery
- Keep layouts aligned to a grid
- Lead with facts, quality and safety

DON'T

- Rebuild the wordmark in a random font
- Use gradients that compete with the logo
- Use generic stock construction clichés
- Mix many unrelated icon styles
- Make unsupported performance claims
